The local Union shall advise the Board in writing of the names of all committee members and local Union officers within ten (10) days of their election or appointment. The local Union shall have the right to call in a representative of the Michigan Education Association at any time, provided it does not interfere with the employee's work.

3.2 Grievance Committee

The Local Union shall elect or select one (1) person to represent the employees of the bargaining unit as the Grievance Chairperson. The Grievance Chairperson shall act as steward for his/her classification. The remaining classification shall elect or select one (1) person to serve as their steward.

The Employer agrees it will furnish a bulletin board in the break room for posting Union notices.

ARTICLE 4 – SPECIAL MEETINGS

4.1 Special Meetings

Special meetings will be scheduled by the Association President, Grievance Chairperson, steward, and the Board, or its designated representative upon request of either party. Arrangements for special meetings shall be made in advance. Meetings shall be held at a time mutually agreed upon. This meeting may be attended by designated representatives of the local Union and/or a representative of the Michigan Education Association.

4.2 Building Use

The Union may use a room, as designated by the Employer, for Union business. Duly authorized representatives of the union and its representative affiliates shall be permitted to transact official union business on employer property at all reasonable times provided this shall not interfere with or interrupt normal operations.

ARTICLE 5 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

5.1 Definitions (All days herein refer to working days)

1. A grievance is a claim by one or more employees that there has been an alleged improper application or violation of this Agreement.
2. An aggrieved employee is the employee(s) who is directly affected and, therefore, will make the claim.
3. In this Article, the term "employee" may also mean "Union", when the Union grieves on behalf of members of the bargaining unit who, because of extenuating circumstances, are unable to represent themselves.

5.2 Grievance Form

Any grievance presented in writing by an employee shall include the following:

1. Specific statement of facts giving rise to the alleged violation.
2. Section or subsection of this contract alleged to have been violated.
3. Date of alleged violation.
4. Relief requested.
5. Signature of the grievant.

5.3 Procedure

Step 1: An employee has five (5) days after they become aware of, or could reasonably have become aware of an event upon which a grievance may be filed to orally discuss the matter with their immediate supervisor, who will attempt to resolve the matter informally. If the aggrieved employee is not satisfied with the oral disposition of the grievance by their immediate supervisor, the employee may request that the Grievance Chairperson meet with the supervisor for further discussion of the matter. If discussion by the Grievance Chairperson does not resolve the matter, the employee or Grievance chairperson may pursue the matter by filing a grievance in written form with their immediate supervisor within five (5) days of such discussion. The immediate supervisor shall return the written answer within five (5) days thereafter to the Grievance Chairperson.

Step 2: If the Union or aggrieved employee is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at Step 1, notification within ten (10) days thereafter shall be transmitted to the Superintendent or his designee. He/she shall then meet at a mutually satisfactory time with the aggrieved, and the Grievance Chairperson. The aggrieved may request that the Michigan Education Association Representative be present to discuss the matter. The Superintendent or his designee will respond to the Union with a written answer within ten (10) days of such meeting. Either party shall have the right to have present at such meeting representatives who may have knowledge of the matter and who may be helpful in reaching a resolution of the matter.

Step 3: In the event the grievance is not satisfactorily settled in Step 2, the Union or the Board may request arbitration as herein after provided for in this Agreement. The party desiring arbitration must notify the other party in writing of such desire within ten (10) calendar days of the day the written disposition was given or due under the last step of the Grievance Procedure provided for in this Agreement. In the event that a party should fail to serve such written notice, the matter shall be considered as settled on the basis of the disposition made in the last step of the Grievance Procedure.

After receipt of a desire to arbitrate, the parties shall attempt to agree on an arbitrator. If the parties are unable to so agree within ten (10) calendar days, or within a longer period if mutually agreed upon, either party may submit the matter to the American Arbitration Association.

The parties understand and agree that in making this Agreement they have resolved for its term all bargaining issues which were or could have been made the subject of discussion. The arbitral forum herein established is intended to resolve disputes between the parties only over the interpretation or application of the matters which are specifically covered in this Agreement and which are not excluded from arbitration.

The arbitrator shall have no power to add to or subtract from or modify any of the terms of this Agreement or any supplementary agreement, nor to rule on any matter except while this Agreement is in full force and effect between the parties. The expenses of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties. Each party shall make arrangements for and pay the expenses of witnesses which are called by them.

There shall be no appeal from an arbitrator's decision. It shall be final and binding on the Union, the Employer and on all employees.

5.4 Time Limits

If the time limits contained within the grievance procedure are exceeded by the Union, the grievance shall be considered settled on the basis of the last answer given by the employer. If the time limits are exceeded by the Employer's representative, the grievance shall be considered granted. Time limits in the grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement in writing.

5.5 Disclosure

At all steps of the grievance procedure, the grievant and the Union representatives shall disclose to the Employer's representatives a full and detailed statement of facts relied upon and the remedy sought, and the provisions of the Agreement relied upon. In the same manner, the Employer's representatives shall disclose all facts relied upon by the Employer.

5.6 Claims for Back Wages

All claims for back wages shall be limited to the amount of wages that the employee would otherwise have earned.

5.7 Lost Time

The Employer agrees to pay for all reasonable time lost by the Union committee during their regular working hours while pursuing the grievance procedure and while participating in contract negotiations.

ARTICLE 6 – DISCHARGE AND DISCIPLINE

6.1 Discharge

In all instances in which the Employer concludes that an employee's conduct justified discharge, he/she shall first be suspended for not more than three (3) days except that no prior discipline or warning need be imposed before he is discharged if the misconduct is so aggravated, in the opinion of the Employer, as to require immediate discharge or the cause of discharge is dishonesty, drunkenness, recklessness, sexual harassment of students or staff, gross negligence, being under the influence of drugs or intoxicating beverages while on duty. However, the Union reserves the right to argue the reasonableness under Article VI of this Agreement. Discharge must be by proper written notice to the Union Grievance chairperson and employee. The employee or the Grievance Chairperson may request an investigation as to his/her discharge. A grievance must be filed within five (5) days unless an extension of the time limits has been agreed to in writing. No bargaining unit member shall be disciplined without just cause. The employer reserves the right to go to any step if they believe the employee has exhibited conduct requiring immediate and serious consequences.

Steps for Discipline:

1. Verbal warning
2. Written warning/reprimand
3. 2nd Written warning/reprimand (days off with or without pay)

6.2 Hearing

During this period of suspension, the employee may, if he/she believes they have been unjustly dealt with, request a hearing and a statement of the offense before representatives of the Board with the Grievance chairperson and/or representative of the Michigan Education Association present. At such hearing the facts concerning the case shall be made available to both parties. The Board shall conclude whether the discharge shall be implemented or whether the suspension shall be extended, reduced or revoked. The Board shall only be involved as indicated in Article 6 of this Agreement.

6.3 Written Documents and Meeting

1. The Board agrees that its Superintendent, or his designee, will provide to the Grievance Chairperson a copy of any written comment implementing the discipline and/or discharge of any employee within the bargaining unit.
2. The Board agrees to provide a facility in which an employee disciplined and/or discharged may meet with a Union representative before they are required to leave the premises. The employee shall have the right to Union representation during the disciplinary process.

6.4 Appeal

Should the employee or the Union consider the discharge or suspension to be improper, a grievance may be submitted by the employee in writing at Step 2 of Article 6.3 within five (5) days following the action.

6.5 Use of Past Record

To be fair and consistent, discipline shall follow a progressive pattern, unless the employees actions are serious enough in the employer's opinion to warrant immediate discharge as outlined in Article 7.1.

ARTICLE 7 – PROBATIONARY PERIOD

- 7.1 The probationary period for each new employee shall be sixty (60) work days of employment for that employee. Any employee working within the probationary period may be disciplined and/or discharged by the Employer for any reason at any time.
- 7.2 During the probationary period an employee shall not be eligible for employee benefits. After an employee has successfully completed his probationary period of employment, he shall become a regular full-time or regular part-time employee and seniority shall start as herein provided. In addition, any required provisions within the Affordable Care Act will be followed.

1. The seniority list for the bargaining unit will show the name, starting date, and job title.
2. The Board will provide a copy of the seniority list to the Grievance Chairperson and the local President on September 15 of each year.

8.4 Similar Seniority Dates

If two or more employees have the same seniority date, a mutually agreeable method (coin toss) will be done upon completion of the probationary period with a representative from both the union and the Employer present.

8.5 Loss of Seniority

Seniority shall be lost for any of the following reasons:

1. If the employee quits.
2. If the employee retires.
3. If the employee is discharged for just cause and not reinstated.
4. If the employee is absent for three (3) consecutive days without submitting a reasonable excuse acceptable to the Employer. Allowances will be made for emergency situations.
5. If the employee does not return to work from leave of absence within three (3) working days after the leave expires, without submitting a reasonable excuse acceptable to the Employer, the employee will be terminated. Allowances will be made for emergency situations.
6. If the employee is laid off for more than thirty-six (36) months.
7. If the employee does not return to work within five (5) working days after the date of recall from layoff, without submitting a reasonable excuse acceptable to the Employer, the employee will be terminated. Allowances will be made for emergency situations.
8. If the employee is granted a leave of absence, no seniority is accrued for the period the employee is on approved leave of absence.

ARTICLE 9 – LAYOFF AND RECALL

9.1 Definition

The definition of the word “layoff” means a reduction in the number of bargaining unit members employed by the Board within their classification for any reason with recall rights.

9.2 Layoff Procedure

In the event a reduction in work force requires a layoff of employees within a classification, the following procedure will be used:

1. Probationary employees shall be the first laid off.
2. Non-probationary employees shall be laid off according to seniority, i.e., the least senior employee shall be laid off first.
3. Employees to be laid off will receive at least seven (7) calendar days’ notice.
4. In the event a bargaining unit member who has seven (7) or more years seniority in the district, has his or her position either eliminated or reduced in hours, he or she will be given an opportunity to displace any employee with less seniority in the same classification or another classification to which the employee had been previously assigned.

9.3 Recall Procedure

In the event a job opening occurs while employees are laid off, the following procedure will be used:

1. The Board shall not be required to recall any probationary employee who is laid off.
2. All employees shall be required to return to their jobs when seniority permits, within three (3) days of notification. Failure to report to work within that three (3) day period will result in the employee forfeiting his/her employment in the district.
3. The Board agrees it will not hire new employees or contract out work while seniority employees are laid off.

9.4 Notice

Notice of recall shall be sent to the employee at the last known address by registered or certified mail if not reached by telephone.

ARTICLE 10 – FILLING PERMANENT JOB VACANCIES

10.1 Posting

The Board shall notify the employees of newly created or vacant positions to be filled within their classifications by posting and/or canvassing by seniority. The posting shall indicate the classification, shift, and wage scale. Any employee may indicate his/her interest immediately thereafter to the immediate supervisor by written notice. The person awarded the vacancy shall be paid at the rate of that job on his or her current step. In the event the person awarded the vacancy is a retiree from the Michigan public schools system, it is Elk Rapids Schools option to contract the individual through a third party contractor.

10.2 Assignment

All vacancies or newly created positions within the bargaining unit shall be filled on the basis of seniority and qualifications. Qualifications include, but are not limited to, work record, including evaluations, attendance, etc.

A job vacancy would be the result of:

- a. An employee resigns from the District.
- b. An employee is terminated from the District.

The Food Services/Custodial Director has the authority to transfer any cook or custodian from one building to another as needed. An exception to this would be where a person within a night position is moved to a day position as a daytime assignment is considered a promotion for those normally assigned to nights. The transfer from a night position to daytime would be permissible if the regular daytime employee was being reprimanded and lost their privilege of working the daytime position. Building placement from a day shift to another day shift or from one night shift to another night shift is at the discretion of Food Services/Custodial Director.

All vacancies will be posted for a period of ten (10) working days, setting for the requirements, classification, shift, and wage scale, for the position on bulletin boards in each building. Employees interested shall apply in writing. The employee who is awarded the position shall be granted a thirty (30) working day trial period if it is a change in classification or a twenty (20) workday trial period if it is not a change in classification. The trial period will be used to determine:

Master Agreement - Elk Rapids Educational Support Personnel

- b. The person's desire to remain on the job.

The job will be awarded within twenty (20) working days after the posting period.

During the trial period, as outlined above, the employee shall have the opportunity to revert back to their former classification.

10.3. Transfer Outside the Bargaining Unit

If an employee transfers to a supervisory position under the employer not included in the bargaining unit, and thereafter, within one (1) year, transfers back to a position within the bargaining unit, she/he shall have accumulated seniority while working in the position to which she/he transferred.

10.4. Classifications

All employees will be required to perform their normal work within their classifications.

10.5. Job Descriptions and Classifications

The Employer has the exclusive right to establish job classifications and descriptions (subject to negotiation of wage rate) for the classification and description. Job descriptions shall be written and given to the employee. Copies, upon request, shall be provided to the Association President. If the parties are unable to agree on the wage rate, the job description or classification may be put into effect by the Employer, and the Union will have a right to file a grievance.

ARTICLE 11 – FILLING TEMPORARY VACANCIES

- 11.1 The parties hereto agree that the hiring of temporary casual employees is a management right, responsibility and discretion.
- 11.2. However, the employer agrees that it will not, during the term of this agreement, hire temporary casual employees for the sole purpose of replacing or displacing employees covered by the terms of this Agreement. Temporary casual employees shall be used to supplement the work force and/or fill vacancies caused as the direct result of employee absence due to extended or job-related injury or illness.
- 11.3. A temporary casual employee is an employee who is hired for a period of not more than one hundred (100) work days in one year. The one hundred (100) work day limitation may be extended to continue filling the same vacancy, provided, however, the vacancy is the direct result of an employee absent due to an extended illness or work related injury. The employer will notify the Union, in writing, of the persons involved and the estimated length of the vacancy.
- 11.4. When the temporary vacancy is closed, the employee affected will return to his/her former job classification.
